Your Bomgar TAM is uniquely positioned to provide a proactive approach to the support and ongoing operation of your Bomgar investment.

CUSTOMER PROFILE

You should consider an engagement with a Bomgar Technical Account Manager if:

- Your Bomgar environment is an important component in providing secure remote support to your customers and secure remote access to your IT resources
- Your IT staff doesn't have the time to dedicate themselves to becoming Bomgar experts
- Your Bomgar environment is complex or it is integrated with external systems (Atlas, incident management, SIEM, password vaults, API usage, custom development, etc.)
- Your organization would benefit from regularly scheduled meetings with a Bomgar technical and product expert
- You would like to have your incidents with Bomgar Support receive priority attention
- You want a single point of contact for escalations who will "own" your high priority issues until they are resolved
- You would like to mitigate risk during Bomgar upgrades
